

A free program for all health professionals with an interest in gynaecological cancer.

Assessing distress in women with a gynaecological cancer

Topics include:

- Understanding the common sources of distress in women with gynecological cancer
- Predisposing factors to high level distress
- Challenges to assessment at the beginning of the cancer experience
- Is there a different approach for women with gynaecological cancer?
- Current research and implications for practice
- Management of distress

Speakers:

- Dr Charlotte Seib, Senior Lecturer, Griffith University
- Anna Gordon, Coordinator, Cancer Support

When: Thursday 22nd November, 2018
Time: 7:45 am for 8 am start – 9:30 am
Where: Webinar – join via your computer, tablet or smart phone

Register via our website by November 20
<https://tinyurl.com/ccqhealthpros>

We will contact you with login details ahead of the event.

For further information please call 13 11 20
email healthpros@cancerqld.org.au