About Cancer Council Queensland

Cancer Council Queensland (CCQ) is the state's leading non-government community organisation in cancer control.

We are committed to improving quality of life for people living with cancer, through research, patient care, prevention and early detection.

This impact statement provides an overview of our work in the Wide Bay Burnett region, which helps to improve cancer control and reduce the impact of cancer on the community.

Supporting people affected by cancer

No one should go through cancer alone.

CCQ offers a wide range of cancer support services to assist patients and their families. In 2019, we provided thousands of people in the Wide Bay Burnett region with support.

Cancer Council Queensland's accommodation lodges offer a potential 100,000 bed nights statewide each year.

290 contacts were made with 13 11 20, providing support to those impacted by cancer.

31 people referred to our Cancer Counselling Service.

$8,000 of financial assistance provided through Cancer Council services, supporting 38 patients.

114 wigs and turbans were provided to Queenslanders who experienced hair loss as a result of cancer treatment.

Inspiring thousands to take action
